Privacy Policy for ENMUmobile

Last Updated: December 29, 2023

This privacy policy governs your use of the software application ENMUmobile ("Application") for mobile devices that was created by Noah Caulfield and Jake Gill for the CS 458 course entitled Mobile Application Development during the Fall 2023 academic semester at Eastern New Mexico University. The Application is a resource app for Eastern New Mexico University (ENMU), providing safety ride information, campus resource numbers, a question-answering function using ENMU-specific websites, an open-source map feature, a sports tab, and a directory page, and more.

1. User-Provided Information The Application does not require users to provide any personal information. No user-provided information is collected, stored, or shared by the Application.

2. Automatically Collected Information The Application may collect certain information automatically, including the type of mobile device you use, your mobile device's unique device ID, the IP address of your mobile device, and your mobile operating system. This information is only used to enhance the user experience and is not shared with third parties.

3. Data Collected from ENMU Websites Any questions, queries, or inputs by the user are sent only to specific ENMU websites, including but not limited to "https://goeasternathletics.com/" and "https://www.enmu.edu/". The Application does not store or process these inputs; they are directly handled by the respective ENMU websites.

4. Third-Party Access The Application does not share your information with third parties, except as aggregated, anonymized data transmitted to external services to help improve the Application.

5. Data Retention Policy The Application does not retain any personal information since no personal information is collected.

6. Children The Application does not knowingly collect personal data from children under the age of 13.

7. Security We endeavor to safeguard the confidentiality of your information. However, no security system is impenetrable, and we cannot guarantee the security of our systems 100%.

8. Changes to This Privacy Policy This Privacy Policy may be updated from time to time. We will notify you of any changes by posting the new Privacy Policy within the Application. You are advised to review this Privacy Policy periodically for any changes.

9. Consent By using ENMUmobile, you consent to the processing of your information as described in this Privacy Policy.

10. Disclaimer The Application is provided on an "as is" basis. ENMUmobile takes no responsibility for the content of the web pages accessed through the app, as they are directly scraped from ENMU's websites.

11. Contact Information If you have questions about this Privacy Policy, please contact us at nocaulfield@gmail.com.
